Proposals.

POST-OFFICE DEPARTMENT, March 27, 1861.

PROPOSALS for POSTAGE STAMPS. — Pronishing Postage Stamps of the general style and description of those now in use, on entabling paper of the best quality, for a term of six year, commencing let July next.

Bidders will state the price per thousand stamps, deliverable in packages of ten thousand each at the Post-Office Department in Washington.

Also, the price per thousand, in similar packages, deliverable to the agent of the Department at the place of manufacture.

Also, the price per thousand, sinsilar packages, deliverable to the agent of the Department or place of manufacture.

Also, the price per thousand, separated in such quantities as may be daily cridered for the use of post-offices, never less than two hundred stamps, and securely packed in the case, suitable binder's-board boxes, with masiin or other squally strong covers, or lined envelopes, according to the quantity and distance to be conveyed, as may be required by the Department, stating the difference, if any, between the cost of delivery to an agent at the place of manufacture and at Washington, D. C. All such packages, before melling to be reexamined and the stamps recounted by an agent of this Department.

Bidders will also give the additional cost for directing packages for the mais and preparing blank receipts, under the direction of an agent of the Department, either at the Department or manufacture, and perforated in such manner that each separate stamp an agent of the Department, either at the Department or manufactory.

Proposals must be made for the stamps in shoets, perfectly gummed, and perforated in such manner that each separate stamp can be readily detached and used.

The denominations of stamps now in use are one cent, three cents, five cents, ten cents, twelve cents, twenty-four cents, thirty cents, and ninety cents. The heads of Washington and Franklin are to be preserved as the leading designs; the former on all the stamps, except those of one cent and thirty cents, on which are to be the head of Franklin. On all of the stamps the denomination must be given distinctly, in figures as well as letters, and the whole work must be executed in the best style of line engraving on steel.

The whole number of postage stamps furnished to the Department during the year ending the 30th June, 1650, was 216, 170,060.

partment during the year ending the solutions, was, was, 70,050.

From past experience it is supposed that the number of packages mailed will average above two hundred daily, varying in size from two sheets, or 200 stamps, up to 500 sbeets, or 20,000 stamps; but by far the larger proportion of packages contain not more than 20 sheets, or 2,000 stamps.

Each bid is to be accompanied with a specimen of the style of engraving and the quality of paper to be farmished, which will be submitted to a board of dishaterested experts or artists for examination, and the accepted bidder, before the final consummation of a contract, will be required to prepare designs and furnish proof impressions of the cogravings of the several denominations of stamps.

proof impressions of the engravings of the several denominations of stamps.

Specimens of board and tin-boxes and lined envelopes must also be submitted with each bid. It is necessary to protect the hoxes by muslin or other covers in the most effectual manner against wet and shrasion. The contract will require all dies and plates to be prepared and kept in repair, and that new dies and plates shall be made, either for the present denominations of stamps or others, without charge, at the pleasure of the Department; and all such dies and plates are to be the property of the United States for the service of the Post Office Department.

No bids will be considered except from parties who have been actually engaged in the business of copperplate and steel engraving and printing, and are those engaged at the time of bidding, and who are occupying soitable fire-proof premises and provided with all the necessary facilities to execute the work promptly, and give the requisite protection to the stamps, dies, and plates in their possession.

give the requisite protection to the stamps, ones, and protection to the possession.

Parties not known to the Department will furnish proof as to these points with their bids.

In awarding the contract the Postmaster-General reserves the right of deciding which bid, in its practical results, may be most to the interest of the Department, baying reference to the style of the work, security, mode of packing &c.

Proposals should be carefully sessed, and marked "Proposals for Postage Stamps." and addressed to the "Third Assistant Postmaster-General."
